

Abstract

As you know reviews settle disputes arising from the granting of export subsidies in the WTO requires legal aspects In the aforementioned organizations. Including significant differences in the granting of export subsidies That constantly arise among the member states. Financial support refers to governmental subsidies benefit to its recipient transfers. Accordingly, export subsidies, grants, gratuities and privileges referred to by the Government or Government entities, To encourage exports and to maintain and expand export markets to exporters of certain goods to be paid This type of subsidy is Possible to cause harm to one of the member states, including the subsidies cause serious pessimism The other is a member country to export products, such as the t-country export markets lost past.

Key words: subsidies, export subsidies, WTO, rules governing the granting of subsidie