

Joint financial obligations of spouses after marriage in statute

matin kazempour*,Dr. zohreh Rahmani,

Abstract: With the establishment of the proper marriage between the couple and the wife of the rights and duties that is essential for observing it in the stability of the family system. The spouse mutual rights and obligations are among those affairs that the religion of Islam has established them for strengthening of the family and its growth and development. Observance of these rights and fulfillment of the pertinent responsibilities will cause more closeness and sincerity between the spouses and provide happening anarchic in the families. On the other word, the spouses have some rights and obligations in the family rights which are classified in two financial and non-financial classes, the non-financial obligations consist of common obligations of the spouses, some duties limited to the Husband and some duties limited to the Wife. This thesis studies on common non-official obligations in the view point of law, verses and traditions, guarantee on fulfillment on lack of observance them by each one of them.

Keywords : Keywords: Non-financial obligations, good companionship, securement of the family basics, loyalty, common residence.

Islamic Azad University, Rasht Branch - Thesis Database
دانشگاه آزاد اسلامی واحد رشت - سامانه بانک اطلاعات پایان نامه ها