
Review Effect perform New law of family protection On The Count Uncontested Divorce In Rasht City

behnam bahrami*,

Uncontested divorce is among ever-growing social phenomena which have followed a considerable ascending trend due to its ease in recent years. By new law of family protection, enacted in 1391, and making changes in laws, such as omission of arbitration institution as well as establishing family consulting centers, Legislator acted for decreasing the number of uncontested divorce. Statistics for uncontested divorce had a widespread growth in recent decade, such that, mostly it had been allocated specifically for metropolises. Based on the current research in which Rasht is studied as statistic community, it was found, although family consulting centers failed to satisfy the legislator's expectations desirably, compared to arbitration institution, they outperformed and made more compromising relationships between couples seeking uncontested divorce.
