

A comparative study of the nature and consequences of engagement in Iran, Egypt and the UK

Ali Naderi Rad*, Dr Hossein Davoudi Beyragh,

Topics that will be discussed in the first chapter of this general analysis has been noted and in this chapter; the term literally means the promise of marriage and legal means and forms of engagement such promise of a unilateral contract and bilateral contract and procedural or legal opinion & at is factory agreement and engagement of Iran and Egypt and Britain have been analyzed . in the second chapter deals with the legal nature of the engagement and it works and engagement is defined in terms of lawyers in Iran ; Egypt and England and marriage vows are promises a reference to the necessity or permit and nominated contract the perspective of Iran and Egypt and British lawyers and Imams jurists and Sunni scholars view fully described and on the other hand the amount of obstacles during the engagement ;including the extent of gender barriers the perspective of Islamic jurists and legislators in Iran and Egypt and Britain are discussed.in the third chapter of the damage caused by disrupting the nomination of candidates presented and the effects of altering the settlement demand compensation the Iranian legislative point of view before deleting Article 1036 of the civil code and later Muslim scholars and courts and opposing views on the rights of Egypt's compensation claims and legal views of England are described . In the fourth chapter,since both sides of the strength and love for each other gifts are offend in candidate did not realize for some reason,the legal nature of these gifts is analyzed in terms of housing or lack of housing refund .It is necessary to explain the legal issues' the perspective of comparative analysis ,all rights Britain and Egypt.the two countries have been sorted to also study esteemed reader law states that the common law to differentiate these two countries compared with Iran's rights' and the relative advantage's and disadvantage's of these countries, the rights of Iran's rights realized it can be means to provide a comparative perspective and guidelines and suggestions for amending relevant legislation by the legislature of Iran

Keywords : Keywords: Nomination-marriage promise-witting -agreement -damage-gifts

Islamic Azad University, Rasht Branch - Thesis Database
دانشگاه آزاد اسلامی، واحد رشت - سامانه بانک اطلاعات پایان نامه ها