Translation and research and matching of peace in Javahr Al- Kalam

mohammad rahmati*,

Peace treaties are among the most commonly legal contracts. This includes the conclusion of contracts, other contracts, rulings, terms and conditions, including controversial issues regarding the conclusion of a peace treaty, the issue of originality or the issue and the issue of the motive of hostility, or Lack of hostility, so that in the case of each of these issues, there is no single promise made by the jurists and disagreed. In this research, it was tried to examine the nature of the peace treaty, and then, as much as possible, its features were expressed the valuable book of Javaher Al- Kalam. The result of this research is that the owner of Javaher Al- Kalam, based on rational and rational reasons, proves the legitimacy of the peace treaty and introduces it as an independent contract, including the necessary contracts, and he is pleased with the discussion of One of the types of peace (general peace) is, and has spoken of other forms of it in other respects. On the other hand, the owner of the jeweler considers the issue of peace in addition to resolving the conflict and hostility existing, to prevent and eliminate possible conflicts and hostility.
